

Eisenhower To Give Hint On Government Reorganization Today

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower may give congressional leaders an inkling of his government reorganization plans today in a conference to discuss a long-range legislative program.

Senators Taft (R-Ohio) and Knowland (R-Calif.) said they were ready to lay before the President at a White House meeting a series of suggested subjects for congressional action.

Tax Cuts Studied
These include inquiries on what Eisenhower plans to do about cutting former President Truman's $78,600,000 spending budget and about taxes, particularly the excess profits tax, which is due to expire June 30.

Whatever he recommends on the excess profits tax, some controversy is likely. Most businessmen and the Treasury don't like the tax, and Republicans in Congress wouldn't be happy about extending it, especially in view of tax-cutting promises many of them made in their campaigns.

But if the GOP allows the tax to expire on schedule and does not also reduce individual income taxes, Democrats are almost certain to contend that all the new administration cares about is "big business."

Income Levy Expires
The 11 per cent hike in income taxes voted in 1950 is scheduled to expire at year's end. Rep. Reed (R-N.Y.), chairman of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, is pushing a bill to move up the date to June 30.

Administration lieutenants on Capitol Hill are known to be trying to stall action. One possible compromise would delay House action now but eventually give a clear path to Reed's bill.

If the excess profits tax were allowed to expire and if individual income levies were cut on June 30, the Treasury would lose an estimated $4,300,000,000 this year. In predicting a budget deficit of about 10 billion for the 12 months starting July 1, Truman assumed both tax changes would go through according to present schedules.

Shakeup Considered
Sen. Knowland, who heads the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said he thinks the President will be ready soon to send Congress the first of a series of reorganization plans. Congress has extended the presidential reorganization powers for two years.

Eisenhower is reported considering a shakeup in the Federal Security Administration, possibly establishing it as a department and elevating Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, the administrator, to cabinet status.

Congress rejected Truman's moves to give Cabinet status to the administrator, but many members feel that the action was taken largely on grounds of opposition to Ewing.

Navy-Air Force Feud Flares In Pentagon Again

By ELTON C. FAY
AP Military Affairs Reporter
WASHINGTON (AP) — The old, angry names and arguments which were bandied about in the famous fight between the Navy and Air Force over B36 bombers and supercarriers are heard again today in the Pentagon.

Some of the heat is just a flareup of debate about the missions the services should be given. But it is given new intensity by the approaching necessity of filling the chairmanship of the Joint Chiefs of Staff when Army Gen. Omar Bradley finishes his assignment next summer.

Admiral Is Prospect
The Navy and the Air Force each thinks it is its turn to provide a chairman.

The Navy's Adm. Arthur Radford, finished with a week of Washington conferences including a meeting with President Eisenhower, left the capital at the week end to return to his Pacific Fleet command. Those who saw him go thought he seemed quite pleased with events, though he didn't say what they were.

The Air Force didn't relish the town talk that perhaps Eisenhower might tap the admiral for the Joint Chiefs post.

If precedent set in the selection of Bradley was followed, Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg, chief of staff of the Air Force, would be the logical candidate. As Army chief of staff, Bradley was a member of the Joint Chiefs when he was named.

Vandenberg is, in length of service, the senior of the three members. He was appointed first in April, 1948, then last year was given a short-term reappointment.

Opposed To Flattops
The Joint Chiefs, top military planning body, is comprised of the chiefs of staff of the three services and a nonvoting chairman.

Vandenberg and the Air Force were less than enthusiastic about (Please Turn To Page 6, Col. 4)

Taft-Hartley Act Revisions To Be Demanded By AFL

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The American Federation of Labor is prepared to launch a new and specialized attack on the Taft-Hartley labor law. It's expected focus on 19 or 20 major points.

A special committee of top AFL leaders has been studying the question for weeks. Its report, based in part of answers from presidents of unions affiliated with the AFL, is reported ready for study by the AFL Executive Council.

Details Kept Secret
The council is starting the second week of its midwinter session here at the Monte Carlo Hotel.

It was doubtful whether the council, headed by AFL President George Meany, would publicize at this time the amendments which the committee thinks should be the minimum target for attack.

Meany and other AFL leaders have reportedly decided to keep the amendments secret until Meany actually goes to Capitol Hill to testify before the House and Senate Labor Committees.

The House hearings, under direction of Rep. McConnell (R-Pa.), are scheduled to start Tuesday and the Senate hearings a few days hence.

This closed-hand strategy could be designed to increase the AFL's bargaining power with Congress. From authoritative sources, however, it was reported that demands for changing the act will likely include the following:

1. Permission in certain cases for unions and employers to sign what in effect would be closed shop contracts.

Chicago Boycott Of Beer Charged

CHICAGO (AP) — An Anheuser-Busch statement issued in St. Louis Saturday that many Chicago customers have been canceling orders for Budweiser beer—"muscled" into refusing to handle it, the brewery spokesman said—got this reaction in Chicago:

Cook County State's Atty. John Gutknecht said he would investigate, although he had received no complaints.

Virgil Peterson, secretary of the Chicago Crime Commission, said his group had no information on "muscle" activities against saloonkeepers.

Capt. John Warren of the East Chicago Avenue police district, where Budweiser has been scarce, told a reporter, "I have nothing to say. I submit my reports to the police commissioner."

A bartender, pressed for information, said, "I'm minding my own business, friend. Why don't you?"

Alfred Fleischman, the brewery's public relations man, had told reporters 200 orders by Chicago taverns were canceled in the past two months. He said he suspected the boycott may have been preliminary to dickerings for an Anheuser-Busch distributorship in Chicago. But he said the cancellations ceased about a week ago.

Cabinet Envoys Finish Trip To Seven Capitals

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles winged homeward from Europe today with what was apparently an encouraging report for President Eisenhower about chances for early action to give West Germany an important role in Europe's defense against Soviet power.

Dulles and Mutual Security Director Harold E. Stassen concluded a swing around seven Allied European capitals yesterday and, according to news accounts, left for home believing their airborne diplomacy had been successful in getting European defense reparations back into high gear.

Deadline April 1

Dulles and Stassen came home to find a collection of problems ranging from the Korean War to matters and personnel and organization, no less burdensome than when they left 10 days ago. Their first task was to give Eisenhower an account of their impressions.

Dulles is understood to have followed what the Europeans regarded as a very firm line about the need which the Eisenhower administration sees for urgency in unifying and strengthening Europe's defenses.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany said Dulles had set April 1 as the deadline for getting "clear and visible signs" that a treaty providing for a European defense force will be ratified.

Earlier Dulles had been reported as telling the British he needed strong evidence of progress before the next meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Council, set for April 23.

Gaps To Be Filled

Beef Price Drop Losing Votes, Sen. Kerr Says

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Kerr (D-Okla.) said today President Eisenhower's new secretary of agriculture is "sowing the seeds" for a Republican defeat in 1954 by not stopping the decline of farm prices.

He predicted the Republicans will lose Congress in the next election if Eisenhower keeps Ezra Taft Benson in his Cabinet and if Benson doesn't "act to halt the drop in beef and other farm prices."

Won't Be Stamped

Kerr made this prediction after Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) accused Democrats of trying to use the farm situation — Aiken said it was inherited from the Democrats — as an issue to recapture Congress.

Aiken, chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, said the new administration expects prices of cattle, wheat and other farm products to stabilize. He said Benson "is not going to be stampeded into doing anything."

Kerr last week introduced a bill to direct federal price support of beef cattle at full parity out of 25 million dollars of agriculture funds. He told an interviewer:

"In 1948, the farmers feared certain things if the Republicans won and they re-elected Truman."

"In 1952 they permitted those fears to be lulled and they elected Eisenhower. The present indications to me are that before this year is up they will realize their mistake."

Causes Natural
Kerr said Benson has authority under legislation expiring at the end of 1954 to support beef prices at 90 per cent of parity, but has not done so. Parity is a price declared by law to be equally fair to farmers and consumers.

"A Democratic secretary of agriculture would be using what authority he had and would be beating at the door of Congress for additional authority in this emergency," Kerr continued.

Brutal Gunman Shoots Couple

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — Police today sought a bold and brutal gunman who shot down a young choir singer and his girl friend late Saturday in the full glare of a bright street light at a Portsmouth street intersection.

Donald Matthews, 19, was killed by bullets through his shoulder and head. He died yesterday in a hospital without regaining consciousness. His companion, Margaret Hollowell, 15, of Portsmouth, whom he had met in their church choir, was seriously wounded by a single shot through the face.

Matthews and Miss Hollowell, on a date, had driven to a city park after a movie.

Miss Hollowell, unable to speak because of her injuries—all of her teeth were shot out—wrote out an account of what happened after that.

The gunman, she said, came to the parked car, poked a gun at them and told Matthews to drive him to nearby Churchland. Matthews agreed—on condition that he be allowed to drive his girl friend home first.

It was raining hard. At a street intersection not far from the park, the gunman—described by the girl as a white man about 50 and stockily built—ordered Matthews and Miss Hollowell to get out of the car, but he never gave them the chance.

Matthews was shot twice. A point-blank blast ripped into Miss Hollowell's face as she tried to cover it with her hands in terror.

The assailant was gone when nearby residents found her there.

Gen. Taylor Takes Over In Korea As Planes Jolt Reds

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN

SEOUL (AP) — Allied warplanes pounded anew at Communist front-line positions and supply arteries in Korea last night and early today while ground fighting tapered off to small-scale patrol clashes.

Lt. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor and Gen. James A. Van Fleet ended a three-day tour of the front. Taylor succeeds the retiring Van Fleet

Wednesday as commander of the Eighth Army.

At his last stop on his last tour of the front, Van Fleet said, "My only regret is that we didn't finish the job."

ROK Army Increased

They visited the central sector Sunday, going within artillery range of the Reds in the Triangle Hill-Sniper Ridge area.

Gen. Mark Clark disclosed in Tokyo that Washington had authorized a two-division boost in the South Korean Army, which increases it to 14 divisions with a strength of 200,000 men. However, he added that it did not mean the U. S. divisions would be released from front-line duty in the immediate future.

South Korean pilots — flying propeller-driven Mustangs—took part in today's strikes against Chinese front positions and rear area supply dumps.

Tanks Rip Bunkers
The raids followed the bombing of a key supply center near Pyongyang by 11 American B29s Sunday night. The Air Force said the 50-acre supply center was left in flames.

The Eighth Army reported that Allied tanks, resuming their bunker-busting tactics, destroyed or damaged 75 bunkers, 21 caves, 14 observation posts and 12 gun positions.

In Tokyo, Far East naval headquarters announced that at least four U. S. warships could be called on short notice to bombard Communist positions with guided missiles "should the war situation require their use."

Alcohol And Opium Under Ban In Iran

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — The Iranian government says paradise-seekers must get along from now without the jug of wine. And without opium too.

A bill, unanimously approved yesterday by the Majlis (lower house of Parliament), demands that Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's government within six months ban the manufacture, import, sale or purchase and consumption of all alcoholic drinks, opium and opium derivatives. The cultivation of opium poppies must be discontinued within two years. Addicts will be given cures.

Tito Thinks Red China Would Cast Off Russia

WASHINGTON (AP) — Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito thinks that, with a little encouragement, Communist China's Mao Tse-tung might do what Tito did—break away from Russia.

So said George V. Allen, ambassador to Yugoslavia, during an NBC television interview yesterday. He said Tito had told him many times that "we ought to make it a little easier for him (Mao) to break away."

Hungary Ousts Boss Of Police

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — The Hungarian government has ousted the boss of the country's powerful state police, Minister of Justice Gyula Decsi.

A one-sentence communique in yesterday's papers announced the dismissal but did not give any reason. The announcement said only that Decsi had been replaced in the Cabinet by Bela Kovacs, apparently a newcomer to Hungarian ruling circles.

(The American-sponsored Red-White-Red Radio in Vienna, Austria, said Decsi had been kicked out of his job and arrested along with his deputy defense minister, Col. Gen. Sandor Nogradi, and the chief of the Hungarian secret police, Lt. Gen. Gabor Peter. The broadcast said all three are Jews.)

Yesterday's communique was the first official confirmation of purge rumors that have been rife in Budapest the past three weeks. Decsi has been mentioned frequently among a dozen officials reportedly purged two weeks ago.

The former lawyer, about 36, was one of the first organizers and chief officials of the State Security Office, but he had served less than three months in his top ministry post. Previously he had been deputy minister of justice.

Approval Indicated For Mrs. Luce As U. S. Ambassador To Italy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prompt Senate approval is regarded as likely for the selection of Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce as ambassador to Italy.

Comment in the Senate was generally favorable Saturday when President Eisenhower announced she would be nominated for the post. She would be America's second woman ambassador and the first to a major power.

Mrs. Luce, glamorous blonde playwright and wife of Editor in Chief Henry Luce of the Time-Life-Fortune magazines, served two-year terms in the House, beginning in 1943. She was unsuccessful in her bid last year for Connecticut's Republican senatorial nomination.

Death Summons Dr. Shaw Of MSC

LANSING (AP) — Dr. Robert S. Shaw, president-emeritus of Michigan State College and one of the State's leading authorities on agriculture who died Saturday night, will be buried here tomorrow. He was 81.

Dr. Shaw was the father-in-law of Dr. John A. Hannah, the MSC president who now is on leave of absence as deputy secretary of defense.

Active in his garden and orchard on the outskirts of East Lansing since he retired, Dr. Shaw was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage while pruning trees Saturday afternoon. A passer-by saw his crumpled figure on the ground. He was taken to Edward W. Sparrow Hospital where he died that night.

Dr. Shaw, who at the turn of the century rode herd in Montana snowstorms, played a prominent role in the rapid growth of Michigan State College.

In the years of his presidency, from 1928 until he retired, July 1, 1941, enrollment soared from 3,815 to 8,475 and a dozen new college buildings mushroomed in a $5,000,000 construction program.

Hungarian Reds Call For Bigger Families

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Hungary's Communist government has outlined a sweeping new program to encourage bigger families—and has said that bachelors, spinsters and childless couples should help foot the bill.

A new bill, signed by Prime Minister Matyas Rakosi and put before the Parliament yesterday, calls on unmarried people and couples without families to kick in 4 per cent of their incomes as a special tax.

The revenue will help the government pay for 400 forints ($33) worth of diapers and other clothing for newborn babies.

In addition, government allowances for broods of more than three children will be increased. Allowances for families with but one child will be discontinued.

Democrats Select 9-Man State Ticket Without A Contest

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — If unity were all that's needed, the Democrats should roll to victory at the April state election with a nine-man ticket chosen peacefully at their state convention here.

Not a single nomination was contested on the floor as a half-filled auditorium trotted out this slate:

For Highway Commissioner — Former Mayor Eugene I. Van Antwerp of Detroit, member of the city council and a civil engineer with World War I experience.

For State Superintendent of Public Instruction — Mack Monroe, principal of Detroit's Jackson Intermediate School and a founder of the AFL Detroit Teachers' Federation.

For Regent of the University of Michigan — Thomas N. Robinson of Benton Harbor and Hazen L. Hatch of Marshall, both attorneys.

For State Board of Agriculture — Dr. Connor D. Smith, Standish veterinarian, the only Democrat now on the board, and Floyd Himes, Perrington farmer.

The monarch returned by train yesterday from Antibes, France, where he went early last week, reportedly to recuperate from an attack of influenza.

Belgian newspapers criticized him sharply for holidaying while his fellow countrymen still were struggling with the after effects of the floods in which 23 Belgians died and property damage was estimated at more than 20 million dollars.

Belgian King Returns To Quiet Criticism

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Young King Baudouin made plans today to visit Belgium's flood-damaged areas after a hurried dash home to quiet criticism of his vacation trip to the Riviera.

Arizona Prison Turmoil Quieted

FLORENCE, Ariz. (AP) — Warden Lon E. Walters promised to take steps to prevent more turmoil today after a normal routine returned to the Arizona State Prison.

The quiet contrasted with the past 72 hours of near-rebellion, which reached a dramatic point Saturday with the brief capture of a prison guard.

Walters ordered guards to shoot without waiting if the convicts got out of hand. But he said he thought the trouble was over.

For the first time since their first sit-down strike Thursday prisoners were released en masse yesterday from their cell blocks. Only a few of the 500 who took part in the bedlam even glanced at the heavily armed guards as they marched to meals and prison activities.

Walters was still attempting to learn who the ringleaders were. He said "eight or nine" are suspects. The real reason for the outbreak was not known.

It took a tear-gas barrage to force the convicts into complete submission.

Avalanche Buries Boy For 8 Hours

SEATTLE (AP) — A 17-year-old youth who spent eight hours buried in a Cascade Mountain avalanche, said yesterday, "I just kept praying and I guess it worked."

Larry Schinke was one of three Seattle boys, all 17, caught in the tons of snow that tumbled down a steep gully Saturday as they were climbing toward a cabin on an overnight ski trip.

One died, Schinke was rescued from what he was sure would be an icy grave, and the third fled from the avalanche's path and raced for help.

The dead boy was Keith Jacobson, son of Berne Jacobsen, city editor of the Post-Intelligencer.

Word of the tragedy, in the Cascades 60 miles east of here, was brought out by Ed Almquist, the third member of the youthful party.

Schinke was dug out by rescuers late Saturday night, eight hours after he was entombed beneath four feet of snow. An arm thrown overhead created an air pocket, allowing him to breathe. He suffered only from shock and exposure.

President Likes Nickname Of Ike

By ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you're talking or writing to the new tenant of the White House, custom decrees that you address him as "Mr. President."

But if you're talking or writing about him—or, for that matter, if you yell a greeting out the window when his motorcade passes by—it's okay to call him "Ike."

That's the word from people in close touch with the new President. And they add that people who called Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower "Mamie" before Jan. 20 continue to call her "Mamie" today.

Some of those who know the first family's feeling sum it up this way: Eisenhower regards the nickname "Ike" as a mark of affection, not one of disrespect. He doesn't think it detracts from the dignity of his past offices. He doesn't think it detracts from the dignity of his present office.

In face-to-face meetings, or in correspondence, it's doubtful if anybody outside his family calls him anything but "Mr. President," except when somebody forgets and addresses him as "General." The occasional use of his military title doesn't appear to surprise or displease him.

Mrs. Eisenhower's reaction to "Mamie" has not been made quite so clear, but she smiles and waves — as she did in the Inaugural Parade—when bystanders hail her by her given name. Formally, of course, she is addressed as "Mrs. Eisenhower." But one of her secretaries, phoning a Washington newspaperwoman the other day, said casually that "Mamie hasn't made up her mind" about something or other.

It looks as though the names "Ike" and "Mamie" are here to stay.

Price Rise Predicted On Meat Animals

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Bureau of Agricultural Economics said today a moderate price increase is in prospect for most meat animals during the next few months.

Largest gains are expected for hogs because of smaller supplies. The bureau said a sharp downward adjustment in meat animal prices which has brought expressions of concern from some farm leaders is about ended.

Jurors Report Next Monday

There are so few jury cases before the February session of circuit court that the jury will not report until Monday, Feb. 16, it developed this morning as the court session opened with Judge Glenn W. Jackson presiding.

Several cases were added to the previously published court calendar, among them the case of the People vs. John C. Coyne Jr., Coyne's trial on a charge of negligent homicide in the death of Gladstone youth Donald Timler is scheduled to begin next Monday. A plea of not guilty was entered today by Coyne's lawyer, Michael O'Hara Jr., Menominee.

Two criminal arraignments were heard by Judge Jackson this morning. George Martin, who had previously pleaded not guilty to a charge of taking and using an automobile without intent to steal, changed his plea to guilty and threw himself on the mercy of the court. His attorney, R. E. LeMire, spoke for him. Judge Jackson will pronounce sentence later.

Robert Starnes, also charged with taking and using an automobile without intent to steal, pleaded guilty when he came before the court. Young Starnes was not represented by counsel, and chose not to avail himself of a court attorney or of a trial by jury. Judge Jackson accepted his plea and sentence will be pronounced later.

Wittkoff Case Dropped

Two cases against Douglas W. Schaffer, for violation of probation and for taking and using an automobile without intent to steal, were passed, as was a case against James Reese for violation of probation. The state has decided not to proceed against Raymond Oliver Wittkoff on a charge of illicit liberties, county prosecutor N. P. Chapek said. Two charges against Harry K. Olson, for indecency and gross indecency, were continued to a later session, pending a psychiatric examination of Olson. The disposal of these three cases leaves the Coyne case the only criminal case on the court calendar.

Two pleas for reinstatement of driver's license, out of Marquette County court, were heard this morning by Judge Jackson. Edward Lindstrom, 26, of Marquette County, had his license restored under the condition that he comply with the financial responsibility act. Edmond Berg, 50, also of Marquette County, had his license restored with its use limited to driving to and from his job. His recent conviction had been his third on a charge of drunken driving.

Ten jury civil cases were either passed or continued. On an additional case the decision to pass or continue was delayed. Five jury civil cases will be heard during this session.

Three Non-Jury Cases

Three non-jury civil cases will be heard. Six were continued or passed. One had been settled out of court.

Motions in connection with four non-jury civil cases were added to the calendar. The motions will be argued during the current session. The cases are: Mary J. Dwyer vs. City of Escanaba; Owen Syverson, by his guardian Elodia L. Syverson, vs. Donald Clement and Nancy Clement; Robert L. Syverson vs. the Clements; and Richard D. Syverson vs. the Clements.

In the case of James E. Frost, executor of the Estate of John P. Norton, deceased, vs. Frank J. Lindenthal, George D. Lindenthal and Delta Broadcasting Co., the date of hearing will depend on when an outside judge can be obtained. Judge Jackson said that his crew will not permit him to take on the case at this time.

On a petition of the auditor general of Michigan for a land sale, no motions have been filed and the case is moved in for Friday.

The founder's day program, presented at the school Tuesday, Feb. 10, Felix Cayemborg is the star of the refreshment committee and will be assisted by Leta Forelund, Floyd A. and Algot Segerstrom and Felix Cayemborg.

The high school bowling league will meet at the school Tuesday, Feb. 10.

Financial Report Of Local Schools Issued

Escanaba public schools expect to receive a total of $446,148.14 from the state this year according to a financial report prepared for the board of education by Supt. John Lemmer.

The state, Lemmer said, this year is allowing $153 for each grade school child in membership and $173 for each high school student in membership in the public schools.

Included in the total revenue expected from the state is $28,600 which may be distributed from a surplus this year. The allocation is to be made on the basis of $10 for each child in membership.

The 1952-53 state revenue will come from three sources, in addition to the surplus distribution. Primary school interest fund receipts will be $96,130.89; sales tax diversion money $103,100.83; and state aid $218,316.42.

$96,130 Primary Money

The state aid figure is computed on the basis of the number of grade and high school children in attendance. From this gross allowance for each student in attendance, the state deducts the revenues schools receive from primary receipts, sales tax diversion and a 2-mill levy based on the state equalized valuation of $15,964,433 for the Escanaba school district.

Primary receipts, which come from taxes on railroads, utilities, etc., are computed on the school census, which lists all those age 5 to 19 in the school district. This year the Escanaba district will receive $96,130.89 from this revenue source, but that amount is deducted from the state aid payments made to the public schools here, Supt. Lemmer explained.

Sales tax revenue for Dec. 1 to June 30 of the present fiscal year was $33,432.28 and for the July 1 to Nov. 30 period $69,688.55.

In addition to the state aid money, schools here receive about $100,000 from local taxes, computed on the basis of 7.5 mills on an assessed valuation of $13,659,254.00 in the district, Supt. Lemmer stated. The total due the schools from taxes this year is in excess of $102,000, but allowance has to be made for tax delinquency.

Borrowed $61,000

Revenue from local taxes has increased about 11 per cent since 1935, when about $90,000 was received through local taxes, Lemmer pointed out. State aid revenue, however, has increased about 250 per cent over the $130,000 received from the state in 1935.

The Escanaba district, like many other districts in the state, had to borrow money this year because of the state treasury deficit. Public schools here borrowed $61,000 from the Catherine Bonifas estate and are paying two per cent interest on it.

If the city schools repay the Bonifas loan this year, a deficit of less than $10,000 is anticipated, Lemmer stated. This anticipated deficit will be greater, however, if the state surplus distribution of an additional $10 per child in membership is not made.

State aid for Escanaba schools this year will be greater by $37,465.87 than last year if the additional $10 per child payment is made, the report shows.

The school census shows 11 more than last year between the ages of 5 and 19. The state aid allocation this year is made on the basis of an average of 2,768.6 students in membership in the grade and high schools. This is 73 less than last year, the report reveals.

Trenary

TRENARY — Friday, February 6, marked the fifth birthday anniversary of Ann Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Finlan. An afternoon birthday party was arranged by her mother for 15 guests, each of whom received favors of paper hats and dolls made by Mrs. Finlan. A party lunch was served, with a decorated, three-tiered heart-shaped birthday cake serving as centerpiece. Each child had an individual candle, placed in a marshmallow, with a lifesaver serving as a handle, supported with a ribbon. They blew out the candles when Ann blew her five candles. Present were Dianne Ikala, Pamela Webber, Lorraine Peterson, Margaret Lacombe, Frances and Joyce Charlebois, Ronda Buckoltz, Karen and Kris Hager, Judy Turri, Cynthia Webber, Sherry Josephson, Kathy Webber, Jeff Malnar and Carol Bush. Ann received many gifts.

Adults present during the afternoon for lunch and coffee were Mrs. Bud Charlebois of Chatham, Mrs. William Lacombe, Mrs. George Webber, Mrs. Daniel Malnar, Mrs. George Hager, Mrs. Louis Laurich and daughter Linda, Mrs. Gerrie Ellis, Mrs. John Webber and Genevieve Fetterhoff. Ann's sister, Pat, who is employed in Escanaba, arrived in London To Round Up Piccadilly Commandos For Coronation Time

LONDON — Thousands of London prostitutes—known locally as 'Piccadilly commandos'—will be run off the streets before coronation visitors arrive, a London columnist said.

R. M. MacColl, writing in the Daily Express, said "the amount of blatant street-walking in London is disconcerting to someone newly arrived from the U. S."

He added that vice in America is kept more or less under cover and "street walking is rarely tolerated—certainly never in big battalions."

British authorities have estimated that about 10,000 prostitutes now operate in London. Under present British law, they can't be picked by police unless they are seen actually soliciting.

Carburetor Too Rich Makes Motorist Too Poor

Car owners who are wasting money and not getting proper gas mileage due to over-rich mixtures will be pleased to learn of a Wisconsin inventor who has developed a very clever unit that helps save gasoline by "Vacuum-mating." It is automatic and operates on the supercharge principle. Easily installed in a few minutes. Fits all cars, trucks and tractors. The manufacturers, the Vacuum-matic Carburetor Co., 7617-700 W. State St., Wauwatosa, Wis., are offering a Vacuum-matic to anyone who will install it on his car and help introduce it to others. They will gladly send full free particulars if you write them or send your name and address on a post card today.

Truck In Bay; Two Men Escape

A weak spot in Little Bay de Noc ice yesterday cracked open to send a truck down to the bottom in 90 feet of water, but the two men in the truck escaped with their lives.

They are Clarence Swaer of Garden and Charles Schram of Rogers City, who are employed by Harold Lamb of Rogers City, owner of the truck and the nets with which it was loaded.

The accident occurred about 10 a. m., yesterday as the two men with the truck were driving on the ice toward Portage Point from Escanaba. The truck struck a crack and settled through the ice about one mile south of the Escanaba yacht harbor entrance.

Today Don Bichler, Escanaba diver, was planning to descend to the bottom and fasten a chain to the truck so that it could be raised to the surface. The area around the hole where the truck went through is being reinforced with heavy timbers for the raising operation.

The area where the truck went through was described as "new ice" that had been covered with snow. Fishermen said they believed the snow on top, plus currents beneath and an absence of cold weather caused the ice to weaken.

History Society's Annual Meeting Is Scheduled Feb. 19

The annual dinner meeting of the Delta County Historical Society will be held Thursday, Feb. 19, at 6:30 p. m. in the Delta Hotel at Escanaba. It was announced today by A. T. Sohlberg, Gladstone, Historical Society president.

Mrs. Margaret Lambert of St. Ignace, an authority on the legends and songs of the Ojibwa Indians, will address the group. Of Indian ancestry, Mrs. Lambert is a teacher in the public schools of Mackinac county.

Business scheduled to come before the Historical Society includes the presentation of annual reports by committees and the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Two Joyride In Car They Stole; End Here

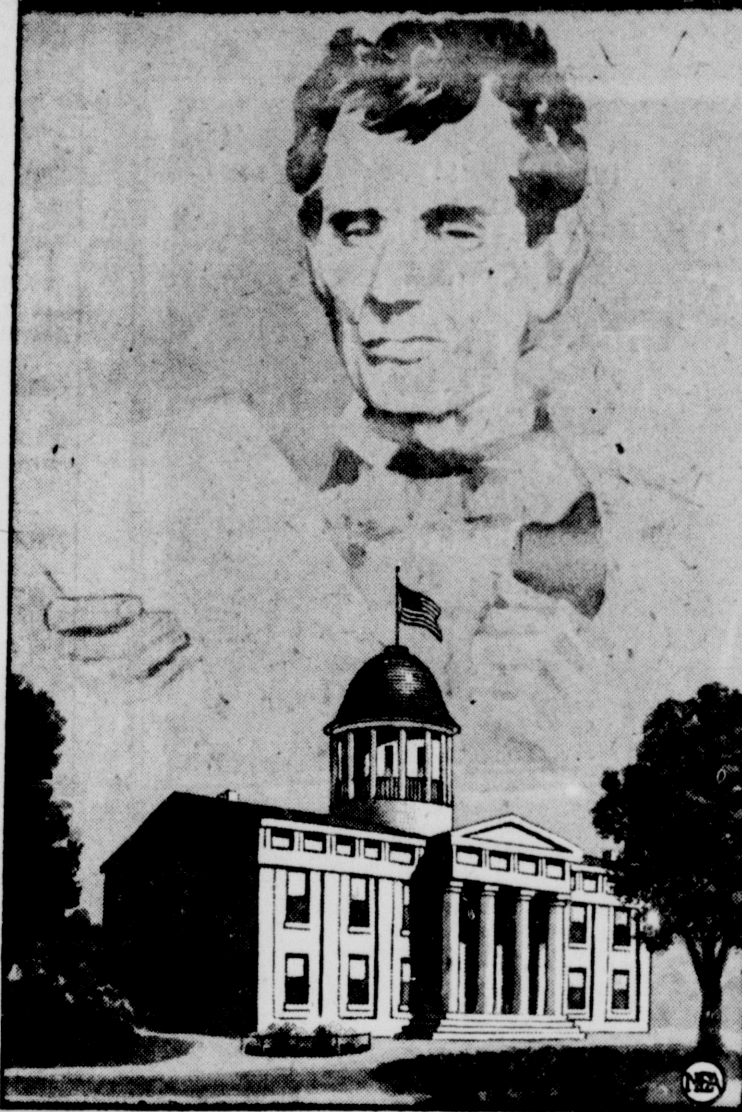

Two Allouez youths who went on a joyride in a stolen car after a drinking bout hitchhiked to Escanaba yesterday and surrendered themselves to city police after running out of gas in Gladstone.

John Kipina, 18 and Clayton Liddy, 17 took the car in Laurium they said. They abandoned it on Lake Shore Drive, Gladstone, in front of the Green Pines Motel, where Michigan State Police found it at 8 a. m. yesterday.

The car's owner came to Gladstone last night to claim it. The boys are being held in county jail until state police from L'Anse au-Loup return them north.

THE LINCOLN COUNTRY

Sketched on the Spot by Ralph Lane

NO. 4—THE LEGISLATOR

Old State House, completed in 1853, is replete with Lincoln memories. Here the Twelfth General Assembly, of which he was a member, held its last session in 1840-1841. In its Supreme Court chambers he argued some 200 cases, and in the House of Representatives, he delivered one of his most profound speeches in reply to Stephen A. Douglas. Here in June, 1858, Lincoln delivered his famous "House Divided" speech. On May 3 and 4, 1865, the body of Lincoln lay here in state while a silent throng passed in final homage to their fellow townsman.

In Spite Of Annoying Detours, Europe Still Aims At Unity

SECRETARY of State Dulles' conversations with French Premier Rene Mayer served to clear away some of the fog that lately has surrounded the status of the European unity movement.

At the same time, these Paris meetings illustrated sharply the value of face-to-face discussions in promoting the close understanding so vital to delicate issues.

On this occasion, French irritation over what was regarded as a shockingly blunt speech by Dulles in the United States largely vanished when Mayer and others found him sympathetic and wholly comprehending of French problems.

By the same token, Dulles learned that, though Mayer intends to seek changes in the European army treaty—current symbol of the unity effort—he nevertheless plans to push the modified program toward parliamentary ratification with all reasonable speed. This seemed to answer the secretary's chief worry as voiced in his American speech.

In other words, the unity movement may not be quite as thoroughly stalled as Dulles' blunt language suggested. And if this is so, it is good news for all the free world. Italy already has given its assurances of support, and Dulles expects similar encouragement from Chancellor Adenauer in West Germany.

The French now understand better that it is not American desire to dictate the terms and form European unity must follow, that it is our wish simply to lend the fullest encouragement and support to this program.

They undoubtedly grasp, too, that one of the things Dulles said so outspokenly in his maiden U. S. speech represents a reality the French cannot ignore: the growing reluctance of the American people, through their Congress, to go on extending financial aid to Europe without unmistakable signs that unity is coming closer. For unity is viewed here as one of the basic factors in the building of a genuinely self-reliant Europe.

More Arrogant Than Stalin

IF those little men from Mars are keeping a close watch on Earth these days, they must be sorely tempted today to launch a "corrective" expedition to put some benighted humans back on the right track down in South Africa.

The Nationalist government of Prime Minister Daniel Malan, never noted as a model of human tolerance, has presented to the South African parliament a bill that would subject any citizen who criticizes any law to five years' imprisonment and 15 strokes of the lash.

The measure is specifically aimed, of course, at persons who attack the government's race segregation and white supremacy legislation.

It is difficult to conceive that any sane man outside the Soviet Union would have the callous effrontery even to mention so fantastically oppressive a proposal.

Not even Stalin boasts so blatantly about the crudities of his regime of terror. It will be a happy day for South Africa and the world when Malan's medieval pageant of hate comes to an end.

UNCLE EF

One of the encouraging things about the Republicans in office in Washington is that their wives already have mink coats, says Aunt Molly Harmsworth.

The Doctor Says . . . Emotion Increases Blood Pressure In Patient's First Visit To Doctor

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M.D. — Written for NEA Service

As judged by today's first question, some people are still uncertain about the part which the emotions may play in causing physical symptoms.

Q—Can excitement make the blood pressure go up? I have been going to the same doctor for the last 30 years and never had any higher pressure than 160. He passed away recently, and I felt badly so I went to another doctor and it was 200. I know I got excited because I could feel my heart pumping. Mrs. C. M.

A—It is well known among medical men that the blood pressure in many new patients is likely to be higher on the first visit than it is later on and that this is the result of excitement. There is consequently a strong likelihood that when Mrs. C. M. returns to her new physician her blood pressure will be down where it was before.

Q—Is it true that three out of a thousand cases of high blood pressure are curable by removal of a tumor from the adrenal gland? Are there any tests that show the presence of such a tumor? Mrs. M. S.

A—The tumor to which Mrs. S. refers is known as a pheochromocytoma. The exact frequency of this tumor is not known, but it is almost certainly no higher than she suggests.

The diagnosis is too complicated to discuss here, but it can generally be made by careful history-taking and special tests.

As result of the Dulles visit, America for its party may realize that European leaders, despite slowdowns and digressions manage to keep the unity objective steadily in view.

We possibly understand a little more that European leadership sometimes gets too far ahead of public opinion and must wait for it to catch up. Some of this difficulty, however, seems the fault of European statesmen—especially the French—who fear to take the unity issue openly and fully to the people.

Where we really need to exercise greater patience is in appreciating that Europe is trying to unite in a few short years a group of proud nations, each with its separate language and tradition, its nationalist flavor, and the centuries-old habit of living to itself as much as possible.

Even the urgent compulsions of the Communist menace cannot quickly demolish the stout national walls erected and maintained so painfully over so long a span.

A Strange Proposal

RECENTLY the State of Massachusetts decided to grant exclusive rights to a single supplier to sell gasoline and other oil products on its limited Access Highways. It requested a number of oil companies to submit bids.

An official of one of these companies replied that his concern would not be a party to the state's plan. He said that some of the requirements imposed upon bidders were unrealistic and arbitrary. He suggested an alternate plan to permit a number of oil companies to operate service facilities. Then he made this point:

"The fruits of monopoly are always higher prices and poorer services to the public . . .

"The American motorists is the best served in all the world only because of the keen competition that exists among oil companies."

What gives the Massachusetts situation national significance is the example of a state promoting a monopoly. The American oil industry has performed miracles in peace and war. It has met a demand that would have been considered impossible a relatively short time ago. This, of course, is a tribute to the aggressiveness and know-how of the industry and the men and women who staff it. But it more than that. It is an example of how free competition, with thousands of concerns looking for business and trying to outdo each other, makes for peak production—and, at the same time, for fair prices and the best services. The Massachusetts proposal would not produce such results.

Questions and Answers

Q—How many states in the Union permit professional gambling houses?
A—One, Nevada.

Q—Do the Chinese have a day of rest corresponding to our Sunday?
A—No.

Q—How many different kinds of fish are there?

A—About $10.

Q—Why is a fashionable part of London called Mayfair?
A—It is the site of the old fair, formerly held during May.

Q—In what year did the first train cross the Allegheny Mountains to connect the Republics in office in Washington is that their wives already have mink coats, says Aunt Molly Harmsworth.

A—The Ohio River was reached from the East at Pittsburgh on Dec. 10, 1952.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

Ed. Note—Drew Pearson is now on a trip to Berlin and Paris to check on crucial developments there and report on the progress of John Foster Dulles in unifying our allies.

En route Through Western Europe—I am taking this quick trip to Europe for one reason. It looks as if Adolf Hitler's ghost was walking again.

That isn't a pleasant thing to say or contemplate. However, the ferment which spawned Hitlerism is here again: Anti-Semitism, German energy, British apathy, French suspicion and American boredom.

They are here and increasing; while the Kremlin looks on and smiles. It seems that what was sauce for Hitlerism is also sauce for Stalinism.

While I haven't talked to John Foster Dulles as yet, this of course is why he is here too. Obviously he knows that this is a crucial turning point in our history, when we can go forward toward peace or slip backward toward war.

These turning points usually come about once in a generation. They come so imperceptibly that the public doesn't know they are present. Sometimes not even the diplomats do.

But wars don't spring full-blown overnight. They sprout gradually, and are nurtured by suspicion, isolation and just plain public boredom with problems of the world.

WHEN WAR II STARTED

Most people will tell you that World War II started in the early dawn of Sept. 1, 1939 when Hitler invaded Poland. Personally, I don't think so. Actually, it began 10 years or so before that, with bickering, suspicion, public discouragement and loss of hope.

Or some people will tell you that war began when Hitler invaded the Ruhr and the Rhineland on March 7, 1936. I disagree.

Again they will tell you that war began when Hitler marched into Austria; or when he first came into power in Germany in 1933 just 20 years ago this month. That is getting a little closer, but I still don't think that was the time when the first seeds of war were really planted.

I think they were really planted with the depression of 1930-31 when the United States withdrew its economic support from Europe, which was followed by the closing of the banks of Vienna, Berlin and Paris; and by the bitter jockeying for power of France and Germany.

Our economic support to Europe in those days was not in the form of Marshall Plan aid or mutual security. It was in the form of loans—loans which American bondholders confidently expected would be paid back. Those loans, incidentally, were backed up by weighty and encouraging words from none other than our present Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles.

DULLES' OTHER TRIPS

History has a peculiar way of repeating. It happened that Mr. Dulles has taken some other significant trips to Europe prior to this one, and one of them was in 1926 when he urged continued loans to Europe. The Coolidge administration at that time was skeptical about these loans, and Parker Gilbert, our reparations commissioner, made some statements frowning on them. But Mr. Dulles, who then represented the bankers, felt otherwise.

"It is of tremendous importance," he said on April 28, 1926, "that nothing occur to bring about any long continued cessation in American lending to foreigners."

"There is no reason," he continued, "why we for many years to come should not build up our investment abroad."

It was the subsequent realization by the American public that these loans were next to worthless that caused the sudden turning-off of the financial spigot and the depression in Europe, with the suspicion, the bickering, and the power politics that followed.

Of late we have been more realistic. We have given money to Europe, not loaned it, and the loss is being shared by the entire public, not by the investing public.

But the fact is that whether in the form of loans or Marshall Plan aid or Mutual Security aid, dollars are dollars. And when you turn of the flow of dollars to a people who are living on an artificial economic level there is trouble. You can't continue them indefinitely. But, on the other hand, you have to be careful how you turn off the flow.

Mr. Dulles on his current mission to Europe is taking a somewhat different approach than he did in 1926. Instead of urging continued money to Europe, he is warning that if our allies do not unite on a West European Army, then we will cut off the flow of dollars.

Deal With Spain:

U. S. Is Angling For Air Bases; Dictator Franco For More Money

EDITOR'S NOTE: Here's the first of two dispatches in an on-the-spot report by an NEA Staff Correspondent who went to Spain to bring you the background on the important negotiations now going on for U. S. military bases there.

By WADE JONES

MADRID—(NEA)—Hush-hush talks here between Spain and the United States may result soon in the closest ties between the two countries since Spain paid Columbus to discover us 460 years ago.

For nearly 10 months, American negotiators have been angling with the Franco government for U. S. air and naval bases in Spain. Franco, in turn, wants help to bolster his country's economy and perhaps to re-equip the 360,000-man army on which most of his dictatorial power rests.

Although there's no official word on the matter from the close-mouthed negotiators, indications are the agreements may be reached in a matter of weeks, maybe days.

Meantime, the big questions are just what the United States is going to get for its money, and how much it is going to cost—in money and promises.

Information pieced together from various sources indicates that what we want are three heavy-bomber bases, probably some subsidiary fields for fighter planes, and two naval bases.

The best guess as to the location of the bomber bases, from which attacks could be launched against Russia in event of war, is at or near Leon, in north central Spain; Madrid, in the center of the country, and Seville, to the south.

Published, but unconfirmed, reports place the naval bases — to serve the powerful United States 6th Fleet, in the Mediterranean — at Cartagena and Cadiz, on the south coast.

If and when concluded, the deal will result in the signing of three executive agreements which will not require the signature of the President of the United States or ratification by the U. S. Senate, as in the case of treaties.

The signer for the U. S. will be Ambassador Lincoln MacVeagh, who has a big hand in the current negotiations. The other two negotiators are Air Force Maj. Gen. August Kissner, and George Train, on the economic side.

Their job is simply to get the bases needed at a reasonable price. The U. S. Air Force considers bases blessed by Spain's fine flying weather would fill an important gap between our "heavy" bases in Morocco and England.

The U. S. Navy is understood to place almost equal importance on acquiring bases here for its 6th Fleet, our most powerful outside of Korean waters.

But there's still another important consideration. What assurance can we get of stable conditions in this poor, proud and tempestuous country where we want to sink dollars for defense?

Only 13 years ago, a civil war ended which cost a million lives out of a population of less than 28 million, left the country in a state of economic collapse from which it still has not recovered, and failed to eliminate many sources of tension.

In Madrid it's not uncommon to see ragged women with babies in their arms begging from people in evening clothes emerging from night clubs.

While prices here are lower than in most countries of Western Europe, the average Spanish factory worker makes only 800 pesetas (about $20) a month. A sergeant in the American Army makes more than a Spanish colonel. The per capita national income in Spain is about $250, and even that is very unevenly distributed.

This reporter saw families living wretchedly in the ruins of once-fashionable homes wrecked during the civil war fighting. Living conditions in rural Spain are reportedly much lower than Madrid.

But the big barrier which has recently stood between us, as well as between Spain and most of the rest of the Western world, has Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

TOO MUCH CRIME—Educators and psychologists have for some time viewed TV, comic books, radio and other mediums of entertainment to determine what effect it is having on American youngsters.

Statisticians among them have counted the gun shots, tallied the screams of the wounded and the gasps of the dying, mopped up the blood and measured it.

Invariably the majority of the child training experts have agreed that in total the effect was gruesome, shocking, conducive to crime, and generally in bad taste.

They express regret that children in the home should be exposed daily to programs of murder, robbery, jail breaks, lynching, dynamiting, saloon brawls, slugging and knifing.

THE DEFENSE—Spokesmen for the National Broadcasting Company, the American Broadcasting Company, and others reply that crime programs—properly presented—are "education against crime and delinquency."

So there you have the two opposing viewpoints.

One says there is too much emphasis on crime in radio and TV programs and in so-called comic books, while the other maintains that if we had more of the same type of program (properly presented, of course) crime would be wiped out in the future generation.

THEY WANT TO—The crime-reducing type of entertainment has not perceptibly reduced crime, however, as J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI and the latest statistics on mayhem will confirm.

The fact is that crime among the younger element in our society is increasing rather than decreasing, despite the "educational" crime programs beamed to them from many sources.

Even a casual listener to the radio programs for juveniles will be impressed by the amount of bloodletting. Shots, screams, gurgles, strangled moans and all of the ghastly sounds accompanying violent death are poured into the receptive ears of the round-eyed youngsters.

Isn't that the sponsors want to encourage crime, but they do want a spell-bound audience.

LURID DEATH—The movies and the comic books also have their sights set on out-shocking each other in portraying human depravity.

Most of the lurid crime entertainment is cheap and revolting to persons of ordinary good taste.

Unfortunately some of the movies spend vast sums of money and talent in producing plays of high technical quality, but basically lacking in human warmth and morality.

In these super-slicks turned out by Hollywood the murderers, adulterers and psychopaths are sympathetically depicted. They aren't bad—just unfortunate individuals who were caught in the act.

SCHOOL FOR CRIME—Movies, radio, TV and crime comics, say the critics, are leading youngsters into the pathway of crime by clearly spelling out methods the criminal uses.

Police departments in major U. S. cities reported to Cosmopolitan magazine, in response to a survey question, that they are arresting offenders both young and old "who admitted they picked up their inspiration and criminal techniques" from crime programs.

The so-called westerns of radio and screen are so filled with bloodshed and violence that most youngsters think that all a cowboy does is fight rustlers. This opinion is shared by peoples of foreign countries, who have only the movies as a basis for opinion.

When youngsters are brought into court for acts that stunt the understanding of their parents and the judge, the defense might well point out that the children have — for two or three hours a day—been exposed over and over again to the same sort of thing as "entertainment."

America's little twigs are being not only bent but even twisted morally by over-exposure to crime fiction.

Power With Words

By Dr. C. E. Funk

The difference in the meanings of the words rest, remainder, and residue may be shown by tracing them back to their sources.

Remainder is from the Latin re, back, and maneo, stay. It denotes that which is left after some process of separation, or removal, or destruction, or that which continues in place, condition, or character. We would say, "The tornado completely demolished the John Smith house, though the remainder of the dwellings in that block were untouched."

Rest, from the Latin re, back, and sto, stand, describes that which remains or is left over of persons or things, those not included in a given statement. In this sense, it is equivalent to "the others." As a collective noun it takes a plural verb, as in such an example as, "Ten were drowned; the rest were saved." In England, it is also used as the equivalent of "surplus" in referring to financial resources when treated as forming a reserve fund.

Tax Dodger Is Always Caught

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
WASHINGTON — Reluctantly, maybe, but I pay my income taxes in full; I'm taking no chances on those demon sleuths of the Treasury department, Martin L. Webb and Charles S. Malmesbury, looking my way.

They're mild-looking fellows and polite. They insert a "siret" into practically every phrase they utter, but what they did to Carroll E. Mealey, the one-time Internal Revenue Bureau big-shot, shouldn't happen even to a tax dodger.

The tale of their delving into the personal affairs of Mealey who allegedly cheated on his own income taxes even while he was boss of the alcohol tax unit, has been unfolding for the last couple of days before the House Ways and Means subcommittee. Gives you the March 15 shivers just to think about it. For that matter, Mealey's at home in Albany, N. Y., now, sick in bed. No wonder.

The evidence indicated that this Mealey, while collecting taxes from other people, held out during five years, more than $40,000 of his own income. He apparently collected it in cash and just didn't report it.

Agents Dig Deep
Now the Justice Department's giving him the double-o and he's refusing to talk to congressmen, or even answer their letters.

He wasn't talking much to the hawkshaws, either, but that didn't bother them. They merely went about finding out how much money he spent, year by year. Since he spent it largely in cash there weren't many check stubs to ponder.

Messrs. Webb and Malmesbury did it the hard way. They tried to interview every merchant, railroad, airline, hotel, and private school patronized by Mealey, his wife, and their children from 1946 to 1950.

They figured they'd turned up 125 different people who'd sold stuff to the Mealeys in Albany, New York City, and Washington, D. C. They learned exactly what Mrs. M. paid for her new kitchen cabinets, what it cost to send her youngsters to school, and the size of the bill for her new fur coat.

These bulldozers in human form checked Mealey's hotel bills. They made up a chart from assorted sources showing his whereabouts day by day. With this to work from, they got from the Pennsylvania Railroad and the American Airlines, the stubs of tickets sold to him.

They checked all the conventions of liquor dealers he'd attended in his official capacity in such far-flung places as San Francisco, Boston, Los Angeles and New Orleans. They discovered that various liquor men had picked up his chits on many of these expeditions.

Liquor And Food
These thorough-going detectives, in passing, took a long look at the tax returns of his hosts. In particular, were they interested in the $81,000 "entertainment" expense account during these same five years of his pal, William Kane, a representative of Austin Nichols Corp., leading liquor dealer. So now entertainer Kane's taxes also are under investigation, though that's a side issue.

Families On Holiday Ram Detroit Bridge; Woman And Baby Dead

DETROIT (P)—A car bearing two Detroit families on a holiday trip crashed into a steel bridge abutment inside the Detroit city limits early this morning killing a 25-year-old mother and a 14-month-old baby girl.

Six persons were injured in the crash which occurred shortly after the two families left for a week-end trip to Ohio.

Police identified the dead as Mrs. Delores Gardner and Nancy Nelson.

The injured were: Charles E. Gardner, Mrs. Gardner's husband; their two children, Charles Jr., 2, and Charlene, 4; and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson, parents of the 14-month-old infant.

Police said the car, driven by Nelson, suddenly swerved into the abutment while traveling at 30-miles-an-hour.

VIENNA (P)—The musicians playing for Vienna's outdoor ice revue now sit on hot seats to keep warm.

Since they play half in the open, something had to be done to keep their hands and lips from freezing and their instruments from going flat. Warm air is blown at them from all directions and, besides that the seats they sit on are electrically heated.

Traffic Mishaps Kill 12 In State

(By The Associated Press)

A fire in a hotel and a wave of automobile traffic collisions led to at least 17 violent deaths in Michigan over the weekend.

Two men died in the hotel blaze. It was in a small Detroit establishment.

Traffic killed at least 12 persons. A small boy drowned in a gravel pit pond in the Detroit area. A cave-in trapped him.

Two young Michigan soldiers were killed in one of the traffic mishaps.

Two middle-aged men burned to death as a fire roared through the Manor Hotel near downtown Detroit Sunday night. Fifteen other tenants of the 60-room hotel were rescued by firemen after climbing out on second, third and fourth floor window sills to escape the flames.

One of the victims was identified tentatively as Walter Lemke, 60-year-old employee of the Goebel Brewing Co. The other could not be identified immediately.

John Sprague, 30-year-old Muskegon father, was burned fatally when his clothing was sprayed with flaming oil while he was working at a Muskegon factory. The accident occurred Saturday and he died Sunday.

Flint Man Shot Dead In Contest

FLINT (AP)—A Western-styled "drawing" contest ended abruptly Sunday when a 24-year-old Swartz Creek army veteran was shot twice in the stomach.

Raymond Beckman Jr., of Swartz Creek is in serious condition today at Hurley Hospital from the wounds inflicted by a .22 caliber rifle pointed at him by his brother, Donald, 18, at Donald's home in Flint.

Donald told State Police of the Flint post that the two brothers faced each other at a distance of five feet in a contest to see who could draw his shooting weapon the fastest.

Donald's gun discharged as he whipped it at his brother. He told police he didn't know it was loaded.

Raymond, married and father of a small daughter, held a souvenir pistol he picked up while on Army duty in Japan.

Wife Sticks By Hatchet Slayer

DETROIT (AP)—Nina Blotz, 24-year-old common law wife of accused hatchet slayer Kenneth Maurer, is in Detroit to stick by the young man she met and lived with in a trailer in Miami, Fla.

The rather plump brunet said she was "just as much in love" with the 20-year-old confessed slayer, who has admitted he murdered his mother and sister last Nov. 26.

Her presence in Detroit was disclosed Saturday after Maurer stood mute in court a second time to face a murder charge in the death of his mother, Mrs. Daisy Maurer, 42.

He has admitted killing his sister, Janet, 11, at the same time. He has not been formally charged with her death.

Nina and the man she knew as John A. Blotz, Maurer's alias after fleeing Detroit, chatted quietly in the Wayne County Jail Saturday, one of their frequent visits together since she sold their trailer in Miami and used the money to come to see Kenneth.

Blizzards Add New Misery In Flooded District Of Holland

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands (AP)—New blizzards driving like icy whiplashes over the Dutch floodlands brought further hazards and misery today to the men repairing Holland's shattered dikes.

The wind-whipped water, snow and ice complicated the engineering problems of the ceaseless effort to mend temporarily the vast protective network before the next flood tides on Feb. 16.

The rough weather threatened to ground Dutch, American and British planes flying in vital supplies.

The three-nation air fleet ignored the worsening weather to continue the air drops. They delivered 40,000 sandbags, rubber boots, boots, lamps and other equipment.

Other crews continued pumping the salty water from the vast flooded areas, preparatory to beginning the battle to reclaim the once-fertile acres and to strengthen the dike system so that never again could the sea breach it.

Obituary

ERICK JOHNSON

Funeral services for Erick Johnson, 47, World War II veteran, were conducted Friday afternoon at the Kelley Funeral Home, the Rev. Clifford Peterson officiating. During the rites William Nelson sang Abide with Me and a number in Swedish. Mrs. Howard Sundblad was the accompanist.

Pallbearers were Bill Hendrickson, H. J. Henriksen, Robert Axelsson, Axel Skoglund, Fred Sundling Jr., and Tony Rose. Burial was made in Fernwood cemetery.

Military honors were accorded Johnson with August Mattson Post, American Legion, in charge. O'Neil D'Amour served as chaplain. Colors were borne by H. J. approval given by the administration and Congress a year ago to build the first of the 60,000-ton Navy flat-tops from which planes carrying atom bombs could be launched. When the Navy returned with a request for a second and then a third big carrier, Vandenberg opposed the plan in the Joint Chiefs organization. The complaint later was made that Joint Chiefs' approval on the other ships, costing 200 million dollars each, was circumvented.

Radford is a naval aviator, an exponent of carriers and a veteran of the B36 fight.

Much of Radford's experience has been in the Pacific, now the focal point of military and political attention in light of Eisenhower's new policy on Formosa.

Navy hostility to Vandenberg as Joint Chiefs chairman is pegged strongly to the belief that he and Gen. Curtis LeMay, commander of Air Force medium and heavy bomber forces, are the leading exponents of strategic bombing—done only by Air Force planes.

Several To Pick From

To some degree, this belief has worked against Vandenberg in the past in relations with the Army.

But Vandenberg's supporters argue that he plugged for major expenditures on strategic bombers only because during the days of military economy he believed that was the most economical means of discouraging Russia from starting a war. Now, his proponents say, he gives equal emphasis to the fighter-bomber and interceptor forces.

Should Eisenhower turn again to the Army because he wants a neutral man in the hot seat of the chairman, he would have several candidates to pick from. They include Gen. J. Lawton Collins, a Joint Chiefs member since August, 1949; Gen. Matthew Ridgway, who succeeded the President as supreme commander of North Atlantic Treaty Forces in Europe, and Gen. Alfred Gruenther, NATO chief of staff for both Eisenhower and Ridgway.

Beef Price Slump Losing Votes For GOP Says Senator

retary of agriculture, Sen. Anderson of New Mexico, said the slump in beef sales had natural causes and should have been foreseen by cattlemen.

Anderson told a CBS television panel yesterday beef supplies are running ahead of demand and, therefore, "you have got to expect some sort of adjustment of agricultural income."

The sag in farm prices generally can be traced to this supply-demand imbalance, Anderson said. He added that, while consumers may benefit presently, farmers face a bleak year for profits. He cautioned: "Every depression we have had has been led by a farm recession."

Press And Public To Be Barred From Jelke Vice Trial

NEW YORK (AP)—A judge today ordered the press and public barred from hearing prosecution evidence in the cafe society vice trial of playboy Minot F. Jelke III.

General Sessions Judge Francis L. Valente said he took the action in the interest of "public decency."

Any other decision, he said, "could serve no constructive purpose and may be a positive disservice to youth."

Although Jelke, 23-year-old heir to oleomargarine millions, is entitled to a public trial, the judge said, that right "does not include the gratification of the morbid curiosity of the public."

Jelke's attorney has strongly protested the move for a news blackout in the case.

So had attorneys for New York City newspapers. They called it censorship.

The judge's ruling meant that all prosecution testimony would be heard behind closed doors, with reporters and spectators excluded.

Women Seize Island

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist Defense Ministry reported today a guerrilla band of women seized a small island off the coast of Chekiang last week and then successfully defended it against 30 Communist soldiers.

Cabinet Officials Bring Encouraging Reports On Europe

European leaders a feeling that the chances for getting adequate aid funds voted by Congress in the next few months hinge largely on whether steps which the U. S. considers essential for Western Europe defense are being taken.

There are a number of such steps.

One is that the North Atlantic Treaty Organization itself, which now includes 14 nations in Europe and North America, should be strengthened as rapidly as the resources of the member countries will permit.

Another is to close the gap between NATO and such other countries as Yugoslavia and Spain. Relations between Italy and Yugoslavia are bad but word came Saturday that Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey will shortly begin negotiating a three-way alliance which will strengthen NATO's southeastern flank. In the case of Spain, the U. S. is trying to wind up a treaty for military and naval bases.

Electron Causes Break

A third step is giving Western Germany an important role in the defense system. The French propose creation of a European Defense Community which would include Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg and Italy as well as France and Germany. This alliance was negotiated months ago and Americans had hoped it would be operating by the end of the year, but it bogged down in French and German fears and politics.

The stalemate undoubtedly was brought on at least in part by the weakening of American leadership abroad during the election campaign and, after the election, by the fact that the only government which could direct foreign policy here was a government on the way out.

Insane Criminal Riot Investigated

CROWNSVILLE, Md. (AP)—A week-end riot of insane criminals at Crownsville State Hospital was still under investigation today as officials ran into a new uprising of angry neighboring residents.

Mrs. Robert C. Adams, outspoken critic of conditions at the Negro mental institution, challenged the legality of using it to confine murderers and robbers.

Wayne Lonergan, Anne Arundel County manager, suggested that protests be "toned down" but said maybe the state should set up an island prison for insane criminals.

"A sort of Alcatraz of Maryland," he said.

Twenty of the 68 rioters were shipped off to Baltimore City Jail shortly after the two-hour revolt Saturday night was subdued by guards, firemen and police from as far away as Baltimore, 19 miles north.

They used tear gas and fire hoses to quell the inmates and free three guards who had been held hostage. One of the guards suffered a long slash in the back but the wound was described as not serious.

He and two others were rescued after barricading themselves in a small room at the start of the riot. Howling convicts threatened and taunted the hostages, set fire to mattresses and newspapers, tore iron grillwork from windows and smashed furniture in their third-floor ward.

Three escaped by climbing down a 30-foot rope of bed sheets and dropping 30 more feet to the ground. One was recaptured within an hour, another at dawn and the third late yesterday.

Gas Fires Capped Off Louisiana

MORGAN CITY, La. (AP)—Two offshore gas wells that burned wildly for almost two weeks are under control.

Professional firefighters who extinguished the multimillion-dollar blazes last Thursday capped the second well yesterday, ending a fight that began Jan. 25.

Firefighters Mansel Rake, 31, and his boss, Myron Kinley, both of Houston, Tex., finished their work at noon yesterday. They capped the first well Saturday.

The wells are owned by Pure Oil Company and are located 10 miles off the Louisiana coast in the Gulf of Mexico, 36 miles south of here.

Soviet Press Blasts Removal Of U. S. Fleet From Formosa Waters

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviets reacted in print for the first time today to President Eisenhower's order neutralizing Formosa. They blasted it as an attempt to prevent a settlement of the Korean War and to expand fighting in the Far East.

The Communist party paper Pravda declared in an editorial: "Is it not clear that the intention of the United States to make use of Kuomintang Nationalist Chinese gangs for organization of acts of aggression against China pursues as its sole purpose not to permit cessation of bloodletting in Korea and to expand the scale of war action in the Far East?"

The newspaper said America's new Formosa policy and the "ultimatum and demands" on Western Europe by U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles "have aroused new aggravations of disagreement in the camp of the Anglo-American bloc."

Detroit Boy, 10, Drowns In Pit

DETROIT (AP)—Two boys who saw their playmate drown Saturday night kept it a secret because "we thought we would be blamed and they would electrocute us or something like that."

The truth came out early Sunday and police probed the icy water at the bottom of a gravel pit in suburban Garden City to recover the body of 10-year-old David Earl Deneau.

David, his brother, Bruce, 13, and Dale Worthington, 8, were playing in the pit when a huge chunk of frozen dirt and gravel broke loose and knocked David into the water.

Bruce and Dale couldn't lift the heavy mass, and David's head finally went under the water to stay.

The two frightened boys agreed to say nothing for fear they would be blamed, and at dinnertime Bruce brushed aside questions of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Deneau. But shortly after midnight the worried parents woke him and asked him again about David.

"He's in the water," Bruce said sleepily. Police found the body there.

Taft-Hartley Law Changes Will Be Demanded By AFL

affiliated union on strike.

No Substitute Ready

3. Elimination of the requirement that union officers must sign an oath that they are not Communists before their unions can use the facilities of the National Labor Relations Board.

Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) recently introduced 15 amendments to the act, one of which would extend the oath requirement to employers and broaden its application for union officials. The AFL believes this is nonsense and wants the requirement stricken from the act.

4. Eliminating the 80-day injunction provision designed for use in strikes which imperils the national health or safety.

AFL officials say they do not now have a substitute proposal ready for Congress. The emergency strike provision, which can forbid a strike for up to 80 days, has been used less than a dozen times since the act became law in 1947.

Taken altogether, these and reported changes backed by the AFL amount to drastic modification of the Taft-Hartley Act. They go far beyond the Taft amendments, most of which have at least partial backing of organized labor but none of which are considered really important.

Wall Street

By RADER WINGET

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market suffered its third straight heavy decline today.

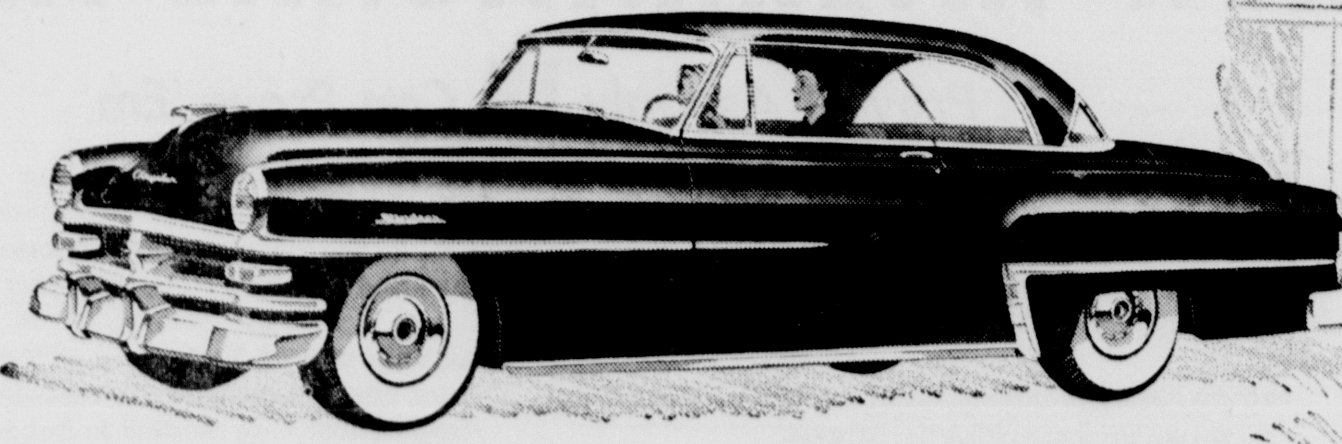

The fall extended to around 2 points at the outside with the bulk of the decline cut off at under a point.

With few exceptions the gains were scattered and ineffectual in halting the slide.

Railroads, steels and motors displayed the greatest activity and some of the bigger losses, although rubbers, utilities, oils, air lines, chemicals, radio-television issues, and building material shares were down.

Losing stocks included New York Central, Illinois Central, Chesapeake & Ohio, American Telephone, U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Du Pont, Douglas Aircraft, Johns-Manville, Philco, Radio Corp., and Texas Pacific Land Trust which was down as much as 6 points at 146 at times.

Actress Gives Up Hollywood Glitter To Become A Nun

LEAVENWORTH, Kan. (P)—June Haver, 26-year-old blonde movie actress, quit the glitter of Hollywood to enter a convent yesterday.

She will begin a two-year course of training to become a Catholic nun at the Sisters of Charity sanctuary near here.

The actress announced her intentions last week and said she wanted "to consecrate my life to the service of God in His sick and in His children."

The Sisters of Charity is a sisterhood that prepares its candidates for nursing in hospitals, caring for orphans and teaching in parochial schools.

There is a six-month probationary period after which the training may be terminated either by the sisterhood or the candidate.

Miss Haver had reached a weekly salary of $3,500 in her movie career. Her career also had brought her personal tragedy.

She and musician Jimmy Zito were married in 1947 but a divorce followed a few months later. She and Dr. John Duzik, a dentist, resumed an old friendship. He died unexpectedly in October, 1949, while they were reportedly planning to be married.

The actress also suffered a back injury while doing a dance during the filming of her last picture. It kept her from work for months.

AS WE LIVE

Unnecessary Overcrowding Is Harmful To Children, Family

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D.

When people live in cramped quarters, they sooner or later get on each other's nerves. What this young wife can do about the overcrowding of her home is her problem.

(Q) "I have two small children and I need your advice. My husband's sister has been living with us for nearly two years. I think it's about time that she lived some place else. The two children have been sleeping in the same room with my husband and me and it's much too crowded. We had to do this because we gave their room to my sister-in-law. She has no boyfriend or plans for marriage whatsoever and living with another woman is getting on my nerves. Please tell me how I can tell her to look elsewhere to live."

(A) You do not say whether or not your sister-in-law is working and what source of income she has. If she is working and wants to live with you, she should contribute enough to the upkeep of the home that you could afford to get a larger place and thus give your children a room of their own.

If, however, she is not working, it is time that she did. It is not fair to you, your husband, or your children to have her underfoot all the time and forcing the family to double-up so that she may have a room of her own.

Your children cannot get the proper sleep if they are with you and your husband. No matter how quietly you go to bed at night, you are sure to arouse them. Furthermore, children should have a room of their own where they can keep their toys and play quietly. Ideally, each of your children should have a room, even if a very small one.

As for telling your sister-in-law, I think the direct approach will work best. Simply inform her that the children are too old to share a room with you and that the time has come when they must have a room of their own. Then put the proposition to her: either contribute more to the home so that you can get larger quarters or move elsewhere so that the children can have the room she now occupies.

Dr. Hurlock will help you with family problems. Write her in care of this newspaper.

Catholic Author Declares Russia Can Be Converted

Russia will be converted and there will be peace if the requests of Our Lady of Fatima are fulfilled, John M. Haffert, author and Catholic lay leader, told a capacity audience in Bonifas auditorium Sunday evening.

Haffert, who is the author of "Russia Will Be Converted" and other books, appeared here under sponsorship of St. Bridget circle of St. Patrick church. The noted lay leader and Catholic author is editor of the magazine "Soul" and national commander of the Blue Army, a religious group dedicated to the conversion of Russia.

The author reviewed the five prophecies made by the Blessed Virgin when she appeared May 13, 1917, and in the following months, to three children in the Cova da Iria near Fatima, Portugal.

Religion Russia's Enemy

All but the last, "several nations will be annihilated," have come true, the author observed. The other four were that there would be another war more terrible than World War I, that the errors of Russian atheism would spread, that the good would be persecuted, and that the Holy Father would suffer much.

Haffert, who has seen one of the three children, Lucia, now a nun at Coimbra, twice since 1946, asserted that the prophecies made 35 years ago were not meant as threats or an ultimatum, but to tell the world not to be afraid.

In the lecture last night, the author pointed out that half of the world's people today are under the atheist banner of Communism and reiterated Lenin's statement that "our revolution is international and our enemy is religion."

Haffert observed that some years after the visions of the children at Fatima, it was recognized that at the very hour the Blessed Virgin appeared, a church in Moscow was desecrated by men sent by Lenin. Again in 1938, Lucia saw a strange light, later proved not to be the aurora borealis, and three months later Hitler marched into Austria, Haffert recalled last night.

The author reviewed the story of the apparitions seen by the children at Fatima, the prophecies, Mary's requests, and her foretelling of the exact hour when a miracle would be performed at Fatima. Subsequently two of the children died, as she had foretold, and Lucia, who was asked to learn to read and write, lived on to tell of the apparitions and the requests.

Haffert, a dramatic speaker who caught the interest of the audience immediately, apologized for having insufficient time to review all the details of the miracle at Fatima, when the clouds parted, there was a bright light, the sun seemed to dance in the sky, and 100,000 people watched. Within 12 minutes, he said, the sun was back in the sky in normal position, and the clothes of all the people, who had been standing hours in the rain, were dried.

Daily Spiritual Duty
The world began to know about Fatima, which some have termed the "greatest religious event of the modern world" in 1942 when the Pope consecrated the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary because of Fatima, and since 1946 when a Cardinal Legate sent by the Pope placed a $500,000 crown on a wood carving of the Blessed Virgin.

A movie of the basilica and hospital at Fatima and of some of the ceremonies and miraculous cures was shown by the speaker.

In closing, he reiterated the requests of the Blessed Virgin at Fatima, which were the fulfillment of daily spiritual duty, saying of the rosary and wearing a scapular consecrating the wearer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Message of Hope
"You don't have to be a Catholic or a Christian to know that the only hope for the world is a change in Russia," Haffert declared, after reviewing the requests of the Lady of Fatima for a return to God.

"She came for us now, not for the world of 1917, for in 1917 Russia was not an atheist country," the author pointed out. He said the Mother of God must have known the church would be prudent in investigating the events at Fatima and that it would take years for a decision on whether they were supernatural. Haffert said bishops of Portugal signed a pastoral letter confirming the miracle 13 years afterwards.

In closing he said the message of Fatima was meant as "hope for us."

"She came for our darkest hour when we face the possibility of atomic war and the menace of atheist Communism. She came to say do not be afraid, for my Son has sent me to bring you back to Him," the Catholic author asserted.

Russia will be converted if a sufficient number fulfill the requests of Our Lady of Fatima, and the conversion may come sooner than we think, Haffert concluded.

John Lemmers Leave For Vacation Trip To West Indies

Manistique Posts 10th Win Calumet Defense Stops Hawks Again By 5 To 4

Canadian Soo Is 61 To 50 Victim

Trojans Stop Munising Bid For Victory 55-44

SAULT STE. MARIE, Canada (Special)—Manistique's high flying Emeralds climaxed a twin bill over the weekend by whipping the Canadian Soo Collegiate quint here Saturday night for its 10th straight victory of the season.

Friday night the Emeralds downed American Soo 71-56. The Canadian Soo fell 61-50 Saturday night.

Hinkson Scores 20

Manistique's Paul Hinkson flipped in 10 field goals for 20 points to lead the Emeralds who got off to a 14-9 first period margin and were never headed.

At halftime the Emeralds boasted a 33-21 lead and they stretched that to 51-35 entering the final period in which subs played a big share.

All eleven Emerald cagers saw action in the game. Bob McNamara and Warren Wilson assisted Hinkson in the scoring column with 29 points between them. Dave Creery led the Canadians with 16 points.

Two Unbeaten

The victory left Coach Rudy Brandstrom's Emeralds one of only two undefeated high school quints in Upper Michigan. Ishpeming, also a Class B team, has won 13 straight. Both are members of the Great Lakes Conference but do not meet in regular season play.

The Manistique Bee team traveled to Grand Marais Friday night to post a revenge win.

DeWayne (Dewey) King, assistant football coach at Michigan State, played four years of varsity football at North Dakota University.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

There's no getting away from it. That little Johnny Kuusisto has the Indian sign on the Escanaba Hawks when it comes to playing on the fairgrounds ice. . . The stubby little Calumet net-minder was phenomenal for the Radars again yesterday afternoon. He stopped everything he saw and a lot that he didn't even see. The Hawks poured an almost continual stream of pucks at Kuusisto but the kid made sensational stops in every period.

And while we're on the subject of the Radars, how about that pair of scoring artists Johnny Whittaker and Owen O'Brien. They combined to score three of the Calumet goals against Escanaba yesterday. In the previous two games against the Hawks they hit for four of their team's five goals each time.

Marquette hockey fans are up in arms concerning the recent ruling of league president Harold Alholm that Fred Brunelle would not be allowed to officiate for the Sentinels against Escanaba. They blame Hawk coach Mark Olson for the ruling and Marquette Mining Journal sports writer quotes fans as saying: "If Marc Olson continues to have his way, he'll ruin hockey in Marquette." But no matter how you say it, the fact remains that referee Brunelle stunk to high heaven in recent games between the Hawks and the Sentinels. At times he seemed to go almost out of his head while tossing out penalties against the Hawks for actions that he completely ignored in the Sentinels. The situation in some games became unbearable for the Hawks and the fans here.

The list of undefeated Upper Peninsula high school basketball teams was pared to two when Pickard fell by the wayside Friday night, losing 70-50 to Rudyard. Only the Manistique Emeralds and the Ishpeming Hematites remain in the unbeaten class. Both are Class B quints.

It isn't often a basketball player makes a bucket without even shooting, but Skinny's Don Dufresne accomplished that feat in last week's game against Al's Tavern. Dufresne spotted Tom St. Germain on a fast break downcourt and lofted a pass to the high-scoring pivotman. But he lofted it a little high (from midcourt) and the ball swished through the net for two points.

Four St. Joe Trojan cagers have hit for at least 100 points thus far this season. Slick guard Bob Sendenburgh leads the Trojans with 136, Dick Bryson has 118, Jim Gravelle 114 and Dick Cass 109.

Ishpeming played without the services of ace scorer Bob Sharland in defeating Marquette 52-49 Friday night. Sharland was out of action with influenza. . . It was the 12th straight win for Coach C. C. Watson's Hematites.

Munising's bid for an upset victory over the St. Joe Trojans was foiled here Saturday night by lanky center Dick Bryson who had battled the flue all week.

Bryson spelled starting pivot Dave Hirn early in the game and led the shaky Trojans to a 55-44 victory over Coach Stan Whitman's Mustangs who were fresh from an impressive 68-50 victory over the Newberry Indians Friday night. Bryson hit 21 points.

The Trojans, who travel to Negaunee St. Paul Tuesday night, were cold from the field and took a long time starting against the defense-minded Mustangs.

Mustangs Lead

Munising made the first point in the game and then traded points with the Trojans to come out ahead, 10-8, at the end of the first period. St. Joe made only two field goals and Munising one, the remainder of the points coming on free throws, in the first quarter.

Bryson found the range for seven points in the second period and the Trojans moved out ahead 20-19 by halftime. Again the Mustangs were off their shooting in the second period and the visitors connected for only two field goals in the frame. Forward Dick Fox tossed in three free throws to match his first quarter point production.

Action picked up for both teams in the third period in which the Trojans quickly opened a five point lead, 30-25. From there on out the Mustangs were battling to get back in the ball game.

Maki Checks

Carl Maki, Munising guard, finally got his shooting eye from the corner and caged three buckets to keep the Mustangs within reach.

But Bryson and Bob Sendenburgh continued to lead the Trojans in a steadily improving attack and by the end of the third quarter St. Joe sported a 35-28 lead.

Personal fouls began to tell on Munising in the fourth quarter. With several minutes gone the Mustangs lost Dick Fox. With two minutes left, Ron Beauchaine fouled out and Carl Maki went out in the final minute of action. St. Joe's Sendenburgh was lost at the 45 second mark.

10th For Trojans

Brian Carmody led Munising to its most productive stanza in the fourth quarter with three field goals and a free throw. Bryson scored seven points and Dick Cass six for the Trojans in the last frame.

For St. Joe the victory was the 10th this season against a pair of defeats. Munising left the game here with three wins against 10 losses.

The final margin of victory Saturday night was stretched in the final 44 seconds in which St. Joe scored 10 points while Munising scored four.

stretch drive in the 1952-53 campaign with three games left each after Tuesday night. On Saturday the Eskymos will travel to Menominee for a repeat meeting with the Maroons. On Friday the Braves entertain Gwinn.

Braves Improved

In other previews of district tournament competition the Eskymos have defeated Stephenson twice and lost once to Menominee. Gladstone has a victory over Stephenson in addition to its narrow loss to Escanaba.

The Braves have shown steady improvement in recent games and are expected to provide the Eskymos with plenty of opposition. Bee teams of the two schools will tangle in a preliminary clash at 7. Game officials will be George Rudness of Ishpeming and Paul Mele of Negaunee.

Perkins, with seven wins and three losses, could tie up Friday night when they invade Bark River. After that Perkins has two games to pull ahead in.

Nahma, in third with a 5-3 mark will play two games this week against Eben and Trenary and could be in front of the pack at the end of the season. The defending champion Arrows also play 13 games against the 12 on tap for Cooks. Rapid River, with 6-4, also has a chance for league honors.

Playday Program Is Reset For Saturday

The Escanaba winter playday ice program slated Saturday for Royce Park rink was cancelled because of rough ice and will be staged next Saturday afternoon, it was announced by city recreation director Art Petersen.

The program will provide racing events for grade school kids throughout the city and some 500 are expected to take part.

WHO'S THIS? — Escanaba hockey fans rubbed their eyes and took another look when they saw this familiar figure in an unfamiliar role on the fairgrounds indoor ice for the first time last week. He's Clarence Matt, erstwhile Marquette Sentinel veteran defenseman who got a release from the Marquette hockey team and immediately was signed to play for the Hawks. Thursday night at Marquette Matt scored the first and last goals for Escanaba as the Hawks defeated the Sentinels 6-3 in a bruising game. (Daily Press Photo)

Hermansville Edges Trenary Quint 61-60

HERMANSVILLE — The Hermansville Redskins sneaked by Trenary here Saturday night, 61-60, after leading all the way in a thrilling ball game.

Coach George Maule used reserves in the first period and they piled up a 17-12 lead. The Redskins stretched the margin to 31-22 at the half.

Trenary came back with a 22-point rally in the third period to narrow the deficit to 49-44 entering the final stanza. Trenary outscored Hermansville 16-12 in the finale but couldn't catch up.

Nine Redskins saw action and eight of them were in the scoring column, led by George Whittens with 12 points. Whittens didn't see action until the third period.

Dick Rukilla took scoring honors for the night for Trenary with 19 points. Seefield, Kallio and Debelak all hit in double figures for the losers.

The Hermansville Bee team won its 15th game against two

Indoor Track And Field Season Reaches Climax

NEW YORK — The indoor track and field season reaches its climax Saturday with nine American Olympic champions and a special import from Germany lined up for the National A.A.U. championships.

Despite the fine field only one world record — the 600 yard run — will be in real jeopardy. Marvelous Mal Whitfield is running in the 600 and Mal says he's going to break the record.

Whitfield has run the distance four times this winter — faster each time — and the last time out he equalled the 1:10.2 world mark.

In addition Mal will have a couple of fellows pushing him. Herb McKendley, the world 400 meter champion, and George Rhoden, the Olympic 400 meter titleholder, are in the field.

Bob Richards will be aiming for his 39th pole vault of 15 feet or better. He cleared 15 feet twice Saturday night in winning the New York Athletic Club games at Madison Square Garden.

Horace Ashenfelter, the flying FBI man who won the Steeplechase in the Olympics and who has been cleaning up at two miles this winter will try the three-mile run in the national. His opposition will include Germany's Herbert Schade who has come to the United States for this one race. Schade was a close third to Emil Zatopek in the Olympic 5,000 meters.

Ashenfelter ran a 8:53 two mile race Saturday night.

them in his mitts and deflected them with his chest and arms. He did everything but eat the rubber as the Hawks poured a steady stream of hard shots at the busy little netminder.

Escanaba was in no frame of mind to lose again to Calumet on home ice, but Kuusisto made the difference. Calumet had been beaten 12-4 at Marquette the previous night, but you'd never have known that anyone could score a dozen goals against the Radars the way they played here Sunday.

Olson Scores Three

Mark Olson, Hawk player-coach, turned in a superb offensive game in scoring the first three Escanaba goals for the hat trick. He clicked in the first period to give the Hawks a 1-0 lead and registered twice in a torrid third period when the Radars had a one on two goal edge.

It was veterans Johnny Whittaker and Owen O'Brien who again turned the Hawks back. The duo, skating on a production line that had Aino Kemp at the third member, scored three of the five Radar goals. Kemp hit the fourth and Pete Lehto the fifth.

Olson broke scoring ice midway in the first period after taking a pass from winger Burt Petaja. Olson's first crack was kicked out by Kuusisto but he got his own rebound and fired under the goalie's skidding skates to dent the meshes.

The Hawks were shorthanded at the time with Jim Ogle out on an elbowing penalty.

Tied Up

The Radars tied it up early in the second period while their defenseman Fritz Kesanen was sitting out a kneeling penalty. Whittaker took the puck at the blue line and passed off to the deadly O'Brien who was boring in on Ben Artwich in the Escanaba net. O'Brien beat Ben with his first stab from close in on the mouth of the goal.

Ten minutes later the Calumet duo teamed up to repeat the stunt with Whittaker scoring this time on a half-screen from 15 feet out. The period ended with Calumet leading 2-1.

Olson nailed his second goal just 18 seconds into the third period, taking a blue line pass from Ed Broughton to beat Kuusisto with a feather shot into the corner of the net.

Calumet took a 4-2 lead minutes later when Kemp scored on a solo jaunt from deep in Radar territory at 2:15 and Lehto hit for a goal between Artwich's legs after a pass from Whitey Juopperi at 4:28.

Chance To Tie

Olson again narrowed the margin for the Hawks, spearing his third goal at 7:15 on a repeat pass from Broughton who was stationed at the blue line.

O'Brien scored the clincher for Calumet at 14:22 when he and Whittaker bore down on Artwich to beat the hard-working Hawk goalie for the third time.

The Hawks had a chance to knot it up when Buddy Provo surprised Kuusisto with a sneak shot off a faceoff pass from center Len Webster. The Hawks turned the heat on Kuusisto in the remaining minute and a half but couldn't get another one through.

The victory put Calumet back in third place in the league standings.

Current Basketball Race At Halfway Mark

Top Cage Tourney Is Near

NEW YORK (AP)—The annual NCAA Basketball Tournament is only one month away and yet most conference races have not gone beyond the halfway point.

This is the month when they separate the men from the boys. Schedules are devoted almost exclusively to conference games from now until tournament time. Winners in 14 conferences and nine independent clubs play in the NCAA tourney.

Oklahoma, for example, currently sets the pace in the Big Seven, with a 3-1 mark. But the surprising Sooners have eight games still to play, including a tough pair at Kansas tomorrow and at Kansas State Saturday.

Big Ten Half Way
Similarly, Indiana and Illinois are exactly at the halfway mark today in the Big Ten. Indiana (9-0) starts the second round by playing host to Wisconsin tonight while Illinois (7-2) will be playing at Michigan Saturday night, beating Northwestern, 88-84. Illinois barely got through a 65-61 triumph against Wisconsin.

Also at the halfway mark is Oklahoma A&M, the hardy perennial of the Missouri Valley Conference. The Aggies have won their five conference games, including a 60-58 overtime decision over St. Louis Saturday night, and should make it six against Wichita Thursday.

Louisiana State, scourge of the Southeastern Conference with Kentucky out of action this year, takes its 7-0 record against second-place Florida (5-1) tomorrow night. After that the Bengals will have only five more conference contests.

Coast Title Cliché

Washington is about the only conference power with a pretty clear-cut claim to the crown jewels. With 10 straight wins, Washington has only six more to go in the Pacific Coast Conference's Northern Division and it's hard to see how they could lose it now. After that, of course, they'll have to beat the Southern Division winner—probably California (5-1)—for the right to enter the NCAA.

The victories scored so far have not assured the above teams of conference crowns, but at least they're well-placed in the national rankings. Indiana, for example, is second, with Washington No. 3, Illinois No. 6, Oklahoma A&M No. 9 and Louisiana State No. 10.

Kansas State is ranked fifth currently, but they'll probably drop down considerably after an 80-67 upset by Nebraska Saturday.

The Southwest Conference, as usual, is not expected to determine its champion until the last game March 3. Right now Baylor leads at 5-2, but Texas and Texas Christian are 4-2 and there's no guarantee any of the three will be the eventual winner.

The Border Conference also is far from settled, with Arizona (6-1) still having six games to go. Texas Tech is second with 4-2.

The Skyline Conference, on the other hand, seems to have shaken down to a two-team affair. The two, Wyoming (8-1) and Brigham Young (7-1), meet Feb. 27 in the decisive tilt. Their neighbors in the Rocky Mountain Conference are busy chasing Idaho State (7-0), with Montana State and Colorado State, both 5-2, the closest pursuers.

The Ivy League, more noted for scholarship and traditions than basketball prowess, has come up with a schedule problem for the NCAA. Its champion may not be determined until March 14, and the league champion must be in the tourney no later than March 13.

Penn (5-1) should have it wrapped up before then, but you can't be sure of anything in the Ivy brand of basketball. Cornell (4-1) was a surprise leader until Penn scored a 50-49 triumph Saturday.

Junior Hockey Underway Here

Although hampered by poor weather, the promotion of Junior hockey for boys eight to 15 years of age has been underway in Manistique since the first of the year, it was reported Saturday by Edwin Broughton, who has charge of the program.

Six teams have been organized, three for boys eight to 11 and three for youngsters 12 to 15. The teams have engaged in several scrimmages in the Central Park hockey rink and also are being taught hockey fundamentals, including skating, shooting and passing.

Broughton, assistant high school football coach, is a member of the Escanaba Hawks. He is being assisted in training the boys by Douglas Harding, high school music teacher, who is a former South St. Paul high school and University of Minnesota hockey player.

The local hockey program is being conducted under the sponsorship of the City Recreation Commission.

Broughton said Saturday that arrangements are being made to take local hockey players to see the Escanaba Hawks in a home game within the next two or three weeks.

Members of the six teams are: Eight to 11 year group—Redwings, James Taylor, Curtis Norton, Ronald Tennyson, Ronald Boynton, John Dyer, Wallace Vertz, Robert Carlson, Gordon Vertz; Blues, Joel Dyer, Cy Lamirand, Tom McKenzie, Donald Mersnick, Ronald McDonough, Gordon Fagan, Wallace Dixon, Terry Chartier, Patrick Denny; Greens, Martin Makel, Philip Carlson, Alan Gauthier, Philip Stoken, Douglas Tyrrell, Ronald Pizzala, Billy Scott, John Garvin, George Seling.

Twelve to 15 year group—Cardinals, Gerald Fagan, Ronald Johnson, Dale Lambert, Gary Rodman, Robert Popour, Doryle Larson, Pierre LeBrasseur; Blue Jays, Harley Seaman, Andrew Brown, Lee Billings, Edward Charron, William Oliver, Larry Larson, Carl Maynard; Green Hornets, Tommy Holohik, Arthur Brown, Jack Jenerou, Douglas Norton, Bill Jenerou, George Philion.

Five 15-year-old boys who have had considerable experience in hockey and skating are assisting as coaches. They are Warren LaBar, Carl Brockman, Herbert Calhoun, Don Tiglas and Dennis Moreau.

Italian Studies
Burmese Tribes

ROME (AP)—One of Italy's most famed anthropologists has left for India to try to trace the origin of the tribes of backward negroes on the Andaman and Nicobar archipelagos off Southern Burma.

He is Prof. Lidio Cipriani, director of the Institute of Anthropology and Ethnology of the University of Florence and a veteran of studies among the pigmies of Africa and the headhunters of Asia. He says he has been asked by the Indian government to try to find the origin of the negroes and to make recommendations on ways to improve their retarded social and economic life.

The archipelago negroes are a black-skinned people of small size and semitic characteristics, unlike the native populations in India or nearby Burma, Professor Cipriani says.

Meeting Of City Council Scheduled For 7:30 Tonight

A regular meeting of the Manistique City Council is scheduled for tonight at City Hall, starting at 7:30.

This will be the first city board meeting since the resignation of H. W. Heideman as city manager and the appointment of Orson Livermore, with W. A. Moreau as his assistant, to succeed him.

Will Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William Bowman, of Gulliver, well known residents of Schoolcraft County, will observe their fortieth wedding anniversary tomorrow at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman were married Feb. 10, 1913, in Menominee County. Before her marriage Mrs. Bowman was Olga Anderson.

The Bownmans have been residents of Schoolcraft County for the past 35 years. Prior to that they lived for five years in Gould City.

During their residence in the county Mr. Bowman has been engaged in business, and for many years operated the Bowman Oil Company in Gulliver. He retired from active management of the firm three years ago, placing the business in the hands of his son, Harold.

The Bownmans have the one son and a grandson.

Old Homes Will Be Hard To Sell This Year, Says Analyst

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Michigan retail lumber dealers have been warned that medium priced homes will be the hardest to sell this year.

James C. Downs Jr., Chicago real estate analyst and consultant, told the lumber dealers annual convention here that the strong demand will be for homes selling for $10,000 or less.

He also predicted that families planning to sell their homes to buy new ones would have more difficulty disposing of their property than they have had in recent years.

U-M Coaches To Speak Here

William Orwig, varsity end coach, and Don Robinson, junior varsity coach at the University of Michigan, will speak at a public meeting of the Manistique Chapter, U. of M. Alumni Club, on Monday evening, Feb. 16, in the high school auditorium, it is announced by William Hood, local alumni president.

The showing of two motion pictures also is scheduled at the session, a film of the 1952 game between Michigan and Minnesota and an alumni sound film, "We'll Remember Michigan."

Although the general public is invited to the program, high school athletes in particular are asked to be present, Hood said.

The meeting is scheduled for 7:30.

Champ Gavilan, Challenger Davey Complete Contrasts

By TOM BRANAGAN
CHICAGO (AP)—About 20,000 people are going to pay up to $25 each Wednesday night to watch Chuck Davey try to capture Kid Gavilan's welterweight crown in a match whose popularity grows by the hour.

If you're wondering why—since many fight experts say the undefeated challenger shouldn't even be in the same ring with the rugged Cuban Kid—the answer possibly can be found in one word: "Contrast."

In personality and background

these two fighters are direct opposites.

Opposites

Davey, fair-skinned and blonde, is serious, almost studious. Gavilan, sleek and dark, is jovial, often boisterous.

Davey, a Detroit policeman's son, was reared in comparative security—one of the "haves"—compared to the bleak "have-not" background of Gavilan, son of a Cuban field worker.

Davey has education, much more than most Americans. He is a graduate of Michigan State College, holds both bachelor's and master's degrees, is a former Air Force officer, and is qualified to be a high school principal.

Gavilan received most of his education in the ring. He had his first bout 15 years ago at the age of 12. He went to school a few hours each day and whacked at sugar cane with a bolo knife the rest of the time. He got the idea for his much-publicized "bolo punch" from this field work.

Davey went into professional boxing after he had won four national collegiate titles as an amateur, mostly because he wanted to enrich himself but also, he says, because he likes the sport.

With Gavilan it was mostly a case of grabbing an opportunity to rise from the cane fields. He fought for money as a teen-ager in the territory around his Camaguey home. At 17, he had made his way to Havana and got his pro start in small clubs there.

So it was by widely divergent roads that these two fighters traveled the distance from obscurity to boxing fame.

Not that it will make any difference Wednesday. In the Chicago Stadium ring, muscle and skill and heart count most.

New Hillsdale Coach To Use Z

HILLSDALE (AP)—Ex-Michigan State College Football Coach Charley Bachman will coach Hillsdale College gridlers this season, and he will use a "Z" formation in doing it.

Bachman announced Saturday that he will come out of a seven-year retirement to succeed Hank Fallon, who will continue as the school's basketball coach and a physical education instructor.

Fallon's football team last fall won six and lost two games.

Bachman, 59, who retired from Michigan State in 1946, said he will spend only the football season with Hillsdale. He will continue in the home and commercial refrigeration business in Lansing.

He said he expects to fully develop the "Z" formation offense with which he was experimenting in his final season at State.

Bachman, a veteran of 28 years head coaching at Northwestern, Kansas State, Florida and Michigan State said:

"I still like football and I still have some ideas that I never was able to use."

After 13 seasons with the Spartans, Bachman retired in 1946 and Clarence (Biggie) Munn took over. His Michigan State teams dating from 1933 racked up 70 victories against 34 losses and 10 ties.

Heavy Action For Pro Boxers

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—This is the big week of the winter season for boxing with the Kid Gavilan-Chuck Davey welter title mill in Chicago Wednesday and the Roland La Starza-Rex Layne heavyweight brawl at Madison Square Garden Friday.

The Layne-La Starza winner seems slated for a June or September date with the heavyweight champion—be it Rocky Marciano or Jersey Joe Walcott after their April 10 rematch at Chicago. The Garden heavyweight bout will be carried on TV (NBC).

With all the excitement about the "big" bout in Chicago, the European match for the "interim" featherweight title has been almost lost in the shuffle.

The "interim" title is at stake tonight when Ray Famechon of France meets Percy Bassett of Philadelphia in a 15-rounder at Paris. The winner will be champ—until Sandy Saddler gets out of the Army.

Ralph (Tiger) Jones, Yonkers, N.Y., and Marcin Edelman, Philadelphia, a pair of fast-improving young middleweights, show at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway tonight in a bout that will be telecast (Dumont) to some parts of the country.

The late General George Patton held the academy record as a hurdler on the West Point track team.

Wolverines Dominate State AAU Track Meet

ANN ARBOR (AP)—After an excellent 1953 debut, Michigan today pointed its powerful track team toward the Michigan State relays at East Lansing next Saturday.

The Wolverines proved poor hosts in the annual state AAU meet here Saturday night by winning 14 out of 18 possible events. The talented outburst revealed to some 3,000 fans a combination of freshman and veteran strength that was outstanding.

Reefers Hidden In Fried Chicken

DETROIT (AP)—Five persons, including a Detroit night club singer, were held by police Friday after a deputy sheriff found 11 marijuana cigarettes hidden inside a fried chicken delivered to a prisoner in the county jail.

The singer, identified by police as Bertha Tresblant, 27, and the others were arrested for investigation of violating the state narcotic law.

According to police, Miss Tresblant, who's stage name is Terry Lane, went to the jail to visit a friend, Stanley Woods, awaiting transfer to Federal penitentiary at Milan.

Miss Tresblant was stopped by a deputy who examined a fried chicken she was taking to Woods. Inside the chicken, the deputy found the marijuana cigarettes.

Miss Tresblant said she purchased the cigarettes from Willie Smith, 35, and his wife, Donna, 24. The Smiths in turn implicated Eugene Jones, a 27-year-old Detroit model and Clarence Oliver Jr., 26, both of Detroit.

'Dancing Boy' Steps On Her Toe; Woman Stabs Him To Death

BENTON HARBOR (AP)—Jesse Sandford's love for dancing earned him his nickname as "Dancing Boy." It also caused his death.

The 25-year-old dance enthusiast was stabbed to death Saturday by a woman whose toe he stepped on accidentally after a dance.

Police Chief Vern Storey said Sandford and Mrs. Mary Sue Spinks, 20, of Benton Harbor were dancing in an all-night restaurant here. When the music stopped, Sandford stepped back and accidentally trod on the feet of Mrs. Susie Lee Terry, 28, of Benton Harbor.

Mrs. Terry became angry and berated Sandford who apologized three times but failed to appease the irate woman. Chief Storey said she suddenly plunged a knife into Sandford's heart killing him almost instantly.

The woman was booked on a charge of investigation of murder.

Ammunition Output For Army Boosted To 52 Million Rounds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army said yesterday that more than 52 million rounds of artillery and three billion rounds of small arms ammunition were made last year, but it did not say how this compared with its needs.

The Army issued a statement, apparently in response to recurrent stories of ammunition shortages in Korea. It said ammunition production rose from a million rounds in the first month of fighting in Korea to 30 million rounds in a six-month
